binding on the State, then there is no necessity for the supply in future of the amended editions (say the 7th & 8th eds.)

But if on the other hand the circular means that, just as in the case of the Post Office & Coinage laws, the amendments of the Civil Account Code by the Govt. of India are binding on the Mysore Govt., it is necessary that some arrangement for the supply of amended editions when published should be made with the Residency.

Letters Nos. 2739 and 3193 dated 16th Nov and 7th December 1903 respectively from the Comptroller to the Govt of H.H. the Maharaja of Mysore, relating to the compilation of a separate ~~Code~~ Civil Account Code for Mysore

In Nov 1900, the Comptroller was requested to put in hand the compilation of the Civil Account Code as applicable to Mysore. The Comptroller now reports that the compilation was completed in September last, ~~but~~ that in September 1902 he sent to the Press one batch and did not receive it back till the 4th inst. and that he has sent now the second batch consisting of 40 pages. He requests that orders may issue to the Press to give preference to this work over others, or to permit him to get the compilation printed in a Private Press. Otherwise, he says, it will take years to complete the printing in the Govt Press.

The Secretary

2. The Durbar were informed in this office letter No.2728-191-94 dated the 8th August 1894 that there was no objection to their reprinting Volume I of the Civil Account Code for distribution but not for sale. As the re-print is not wanted for other than their own officials, the Resident does not understand why, for examination purposes, the reprinted portions cannot be distributed gratis, their return from the officers using them being required after the examination. In British Provinces where also subordinate officials have to pass in the Civil Account Code, no difficulty is found to exist with regard to this matter.

as per Government order No. 4062 Fl. 390 date 17th September 1900, was completed in Septembe last; but as it was considered convenient t send to the Government Press at Bangalore the pages of this compilation in batches, the Superin tendent was informed accordingly and the first batch was sent with my No. 1303 dated 12th September 1902. Although more than a year has elapsed since the first batch was sent in and although the Superintendent was written more than once pointing out the urgent need for the code and asked to intimate whe the second batch should be sent, I regr to say that only 22 pages have been prin up to date and no reply has been received from him -
